SEABREEZE, Feb. 1.—Twenty-seven members of the Ladies' Sewing Circle met with Mrs. C. A. Coburn Thursday afternoon. The Circle that afternoon received a donation of a dozen pieces of beautiful fancy work. A vote of thanks was given the generous donors.
Misses Crosby and Macomber, of Minneapolis, who have been spending a couple of weeks here, leave tomorrow for Palm Beach. They will make the trip on the launch, "Constitution," manned by Captain Ellsworth, and will return by rail.
We understand that a bridge club has been recently organized on Halifax avenue, and that hereafter the members will meet once a week.
Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Burget, grandparents of Miss Mabel Hatch, who has been visiting Miss Burget for several weeks, arrived Friday from Cheesha, Mass., and will spend the remainder of the season at The Princess Islena.
Mr. Walthouse, guest of The Mayfield, made an extended business trip to Atlanta, Baltimore, Washington, and points North.
Mrs. E. Nahn, of Bowling Green, Ky., who arrived the latter part of last week, has taken rooms with Mrs. Julia Martin, on Ocean boulevard.
Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Rust, of Nashville, Tenn., Mrs. Edward A. Vosmer and son, and mother Mrs. Sallie Shields are recent arrivals at the Glenwood.
J. B. Abernethy, who was expecting his mother the latter part of last week, had a letter from her saying that on account of sickness it would be impossible for her to leave home for some time.
Mrs. Vining, who is spending the winter with Dr. and Mrs. Evernden, on Oakridge avenue, made a business trip to Ormond Saturday. Mrs. Vining sold her orange grove at that place recently.
The Seabreeze High School, assisted by the grades, expect to stage a drama some time during March at Wilmans opera house, the proceeds to be applied toward a school library.
The many friends of Miss Lizzie Blakeslee will be delighted to know that there is prospect of her returning to her Seabreeze home some time in March.
The improvement which was being made on the home of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Smith is now completed and adds many times to the beauty of their home. Mrs. Blakeslee says she will now turn her attention to the front yard, and a more rare setting.
London Street Noises.
A hundred years or so ago no punishment could have been worse than that of subjecting the victim to the inferno of modern London noises if they had then existed. Dropping water on the forehead, torturing with tweezers, setting food before the starving culprit—out of reach—all of these were exquisite and refined forms of horror, but they all pale before a night and a day in a modern London street—Town and Country.

Murdered by a Statue.
The death of Kenneth, the half mythic king of Scotland, was one of the most curious and remarkable in history. It may be called a historical fact. It seems that Kenneth had slain Cruthlathus, a son, and Malcolm Duffus, the king and brother of Fennella. She, to be revenged, caused Wilfus, the most ingenious artist of the time, to fashion a statue filled with automatic springs and levers. Finished and set up this brazen image was an admirable work of art. In its right hand Wilfus placed a ewer and in the left an apple of pure gold finely set with diamonds and other precious stones. To touch this apple was to court death. It was so arranged that any one guilty of such vandalism would be immediately riddled with arrows shot from loopholes in the statue's body. Kenneth was invited to see the wonder and, kluglike (and just as Fennella hoped), tried to pluck the imitation fruit. He was instantly riddled with poisoned arrows, dying where he fell.
